House Of Blood And Fire Author To Visit Library

Local author, Kameron Gray, will visit the Main Library on Sunday, October 7, at 3:00 p.m. to discuss his exciting new novelette, House of Blood and Fire. Set in the Baton Rouge area, it takes a fictional look at Cottage Plantation on River Road. Gray's extensive research on the old plantation and the incredible events that occurred there inspired this original work.

Kameron Gray, pseudonym of local attorney and writer Richard Odom, has lived and practiced law in Baton Rouge for the last twenty-five years. He has two previous works of non-fiction published under his real name.

30th Annual Author/Illustrator Vivian Vande Velde

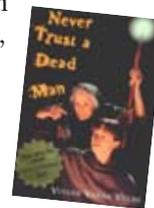

The East Baton Rouge Parish Library will celebrate its thirtieth annual Author/Illustrator Program at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch Library on Thursday, October 4 and Friday, October 5. This year's special guest is Vivian Vande Velde, a well-known, award-winning author of novels for children and teens. Vande Velde is known for her blend of fantasy and mystery as well as her ability to turn a fairy tale upside down with a fresh and humorous perspective.

She has written over two dozen books, many of them garnering national awards. With her first book, A Hidden Magic, Vande Velde won the Child Study Association Book of the Year, among other honors. Her mystery, Never Trust a Dead Man, won several honors including School Library Journal's Best Book of the Year and an American Library Association Best Book for Young Adults.

The Thursday evening program at 7:00 p.m. is free and open to the public. Vande Velde's lecture "From Idea to Bookshelf," will be followed by a light reception, book sale, and autograph session.

Vande Velde will conduct a workshop "Every Life Needs a Little Fantasy," geared towards educators, librarians, writers, and other interested adults on Friday at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch Library from 8:00 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. There is a modest registration fee of $25.00 per person or $10.00 for college students with school identification. A book sale and autograph session will follow the workshop.

The Author/Illustrator Program, supported by the East Baton Rouge Parish

New Library Division Heads

The East Baton Rouge Parish Library is pleased to announce two new division head appointments!

Andi Abraham has been named Head of Adult & Circulation Services Division, replacing Jane Beyer who retired earlier this year. Prior to this position, Abraham worked as Branch Manager of the Greenwell Springs Road Regional Branch.

As the Head of Adult Services, Abraham is responsible for all adult programming, including book clubs and the summer reading program. As the liaison for public meeting rooms, she works with community groups and organizations. She also oversees patron accounts, circulation, stack maintenance, audio visual collection, and reader's advisory services.

Abraham earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Russian Studies from Louisiana State University in 1982, and a Master's degree in Library and Information Science from the University of Texas in 1985. She has worked for the East Baton Rouge Parish Library system since 1986. She can be reached at (225) 231-3745.

Barbara Roos has been named Head of the Teen/Young Adult Services Division. Roos previously worked as Assistant Head of Branch Services Division. She replaces Brenda Eames, who retired in August.

As the Head of Young Adult Services, Roos is responsible for all teen services and programming, including tutoring and the summer reading program. She will coordinate teen volunteers and oversee outreach efforts to schools, the community, as well as the Juvenile Detention Center. She also manages collection development to meet the reference, informational, educational and recreational needs of teen library patrons.

Roos earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sculpture from Louisiana State University in 1995, a Master's degree in Education from Louisiana State University in 1996, and a Master's degree in Library and Information Science from Louisiana State University in 1999. Roos can be reached at (225) 231-3770.

Storytime at the Library

Storytime gives children an excellent introduction to books and the library, increases their attention spans, and develops their social skills by involving them in stories, poetry, and songs. The Children's Services staff hopes Storytime will be an enjoyable experience for each child, leading to a lifelong love of books and reading.

You are always welcome to attend Storytime with your child. We offer six different Storytime formats. Since children develop at different rates, you may talk with one of our library staff members to place your child in a younger or older group. Call your local library for more information. Organized groups must reserve a date and time other than those listed below.
