Live at Chelsea's

Join the Library and our jazzy partners Chelsea's Café and Cox Communications for another great evening of FREE live jazz, at Chelsea's Café, 2857 Perkins Road, on Wednesday, September 19, at 6:00 p.m. This family friendly concert will feature the smooth sounds of Harry Anderson.

Harry Anderson is an internationally known jazz bassist and the director of Southern University's Jazz Institute. His musical career began at the age of six when he started singing in his mother's church choir. He has gone on to perform at jazz festivals around the world as well as play with musicians as diverse as Itzhak Perlman and Jimmy Heath.

For more information, call (225) 231-3750.

Library Director Lydia Acosta, Head of Reference Services Emilie Smart, and library patrons John & Cathy Berry enjoy jazz at Chelsea's Cafe.

Looking at Jazz - Jazz Innovators

"Bebop" on over to the Bluebonnet Regional Branch on Thursday, September 13, at 7:00 p.m. for the latest in the series Looking at: Jazz - America's Art Form. Music historian, Kevin Fontenot, will present the feature documentary film, Jazz Innovators: From Bebop, to Hard Bop, to Cool and More. The film will feature interviews as well as excerpts from concerts to provide context for an expert discussion.

For more information, call (225) 231-3750.

My Favorite Things

Find out what Harry Anderson, considers his favorite jazz tunes! As a bassist, Anderson has played everything with just about everybody so his influences are very broad. He'll probably include some bebop selections in his playlist -- and maybe a little Mingus! The fun starts at the Carver Branch on September 16, at 3:00 p.m.

For more information, call (225) 231-3750.

Thirtieth Annual Author/Illustrator Program

Featuring Vivian Vande Velde

The East Baton Rouge Parish Library will celebrate its thirtieth annual Author/Illustrator Program at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch on Thursday, October 4, and Friday, October 5. This year's special guest is Vivian Vande Velde, an author known for her blend of fantasy and mystery as well as her ability to turn a fairy tale upside down with a fresh and humorous perspective. She has written over two dozen books, many of them garnering national awards. With her first book, A Hidden Magic, Vande Velde won the Child Study Association Book of the Year, among other honors. The mystery, Never Trust a Dead Man, won several honors including School Library Journal's Best Book of the Year and an American Library Association Best Book for Young Adults.

Vande Velde feels that writing for young people is extremely important. "Childhood and teen years are when kids are thinking about things, forming opinions, deciding what is right and wrong, what they like, and how they want to spend their lives. One of the things they are subconsciously deciding is if they even enjoy reading. I want to write stories that make kids feel that reading is important to them, and I want to address the questions that are relevant to them...and that are still relevant to me."

The Author/Illustrator Program is supported by the East Baton Rouge Parish Library Patrons of the Public Library. The Thursday night event at 7:00 p.m. is free and open to the public. There is a modest registration fee for the Friday workshop beginning at 8:00 a.m., which is geared towards educators, librarians, writers, and those wishing to publish for a young audience. To register and for more information, call (225) 231-3760.

Publish Your Work

Eden Park Branch Library Receives Rose Award

Congratulations Eden Park Branch!

The Baton Rouge chapter of the American Institute of Architects has awarded the Rose Award, its highest design award, to the Eden Park Branch Library. Opened to the public on January 11, 2007, the Eden Park Branch includes a covered drive-through at the entrance and a beautifully landscaped courtyard with covered seating area. Designed by the architectural firm Tipton Associates APAC, this 14,026 square foot library houses over 55,000 books, 70 magazine titles, 10 newspaper subscriptions, and 3,500 videos, DVDs, audiobooks, and CDs.

A lovely feature of the beautiful new library is its remarkable stained glass at the entrance window, designed by Steven Wilson. This new branch includes state-of-the-art raised modular flooring to provide flexibility and facilitate wiring and other future technology needs of the structure, as well as state-of-the-art shelving with attached lighting.

The Five Major Barriers to Healing

Dr. Robert Ritchie will discuss the five major barriers to healing and what can be done to help your body heal faster, at the Main Library, on Tuesday, October 2, at 7:00 p.m.

The autonomic nervous system (ANS) regulates the body's ability to respond to stress as needed as well as relax, repair, and/or heal itself. Dr. Ritchie will demonstrate ways to check your ANS for deficiencies.

Dr. Ritchie received his undergraduate and Master's degrees from Louisiana State University, and a Doctorate of Chiropractic from Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa. He has over twenty years experience in chiropractic, nutrition, and other alternative healing methods. His primary focus is in nutrition response testing which provides an assessment of the specific health and nutritional needs of each individual.

For more information, call (225) 231-3745.

Digital Camera Tutorial

Learn the basics of digital cameras at the Main Library, on Sunday, September 23, at 3:00 p.m. From pixels to memory cards, instructor, Sheri Juban will discuss what to look for when choosing a digital camera. She will also explain how to transfer pictures from a digital camera to a computer.

For more information, call (225) 231-3746.

Under The Sea

Go on an underwater adventure without having to get wet!

The Dixieland Divers present Under the Sea, an exciting program at several libraries. Two of the programs will be open to all ages, while the third will be geared to children, ages 5 to 12. The Dixieland Divers will show a film of an underwater excursion that includes footage of various sea life as well as a sunken ship. Members of the group will be on hand to answer questions related to diving.

In conjunction with the Dixieland Divers, the Louisiana Malacological Society will display shells, diving equipment, and underwater photographs, as well as fossils and marine artifacts salvaged from underwater wrecks.

Don't Flip This House, or Flip That House...Flip My House!

You've seen it on TV thousands of times. Flip This house. Flip That house. They sure do make it seem easy on TV: buy a home for pennies on the dollar, call up a bunch of guys, and a few weeks later you've got a brand new home worth thousands more than you paid for it. However, reality TV and reality are two different things!

Learn how to find, finance, fix, and flip bargain houses for profit; or explore fresh ideas for fixing up houses during the "Is Flipping For You?" seminar at the Jones Creek Regional Branch on Thursday, September 6, at 6:30 p.m. This seminar will offer advice from professionals in a variety of fields related to real estate investment.

Library staff will highlight print and online investment and real estate resources available in the Library's collection.

Storytime at the Library

Storytime gives children an excellent introduction to books and the library, increases their attention spans, and develops their social skills by involving them in stories, poetry, and songs. The Children's Services staff hopes Storytime will be an enjoyable experience for each child, leading to a lifelong love of books and reading.

You are always welcome to attend Storytime with your child. We offer six different Storytime formats. Since children develop at different rates, you may talk with one of our library staff members to place your child in a younger or older group. Call your local library for more information. Organized groups must reserve a date and time other than those listed below.
