The 36th Annual Author-Illustrator Program features Linda Sue Park, renowned author of books for children and teens. On Thursday, October 3, at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch, Linda Sue Park will present a free program for adults, teens, and children at 7:00 p.m.

On Friday, October 4, Linda Sue Park will lead a workshop for teachers, writers and students at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch. A continental breakfast will be offered at 8:00 a.m., and Linda Sue Park’s program will begin at 8:30 a.m. Registration is required to attend the Friday workshop; the registration fee is $25 for adults and $10 for students. The Author/Illustrator Program affords teachers, librarians, parents and other interested adults an excellent opportunity for an exchange of ideas with prominent writers, artists, scholars, and performers of literature for children and young adults.

Previous notable artists in the field of literature who have been featured include Avi, Patricia and Fred McKissack, E. L. Konigsburg, Stephen Kellogg, Paula Danziger, Mercer Mayer, and Richard Peck. Both events will include a book sale and autograph session, sponsored by Patrons of the Public Library. Linda Sue Park will autograph copies of her books that will be sold at the program.

With several books for children and young adults to her name, Linda Sue Park has won numerous awards including the Newbery Medal, ALA Best Book for Children, ALA Best Book for Young Adults, Bank Street Best Children’s Book of the Year, the Jane Addams Children’s Book Award, and the Skipping Stones Honor Award.

BRAS Donates Dobsonian Telescope to EBRPL: Now Available for Check-out

The Baton Rouge Astronomical Society (BRAS) donated an Orion Skyquest XT6 Dobsonian telescope to the East Baton Rouge Parish Library (EBRPL) System on August 19. BRAS donated the telescope to provide library patrons with a new way to enjoy astronomy.

“We now have a way to grow new astronomy fans,” said Library Assistant Director, Mary Stein. She went on to say that the library has a goal to further promote Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) amongst its branches and that the telescope will help do just that.

Trevor McGuire, BRAS Observatory Chairman, said that library patrons will be able to use the telescope to get a good glimpse of Moon, the Orion Nebula, Saturn, Jupiter and the Double Cluster in the Perseus Constellation this time of year from the Baton Rouge Metropolitan area skies. He also noted that the Comet ISON, which is expected to be visible form Earth in November, will be able to be viewed using the Dobsonian telescope.

The telescope will be available for check-out, for a week at-a-time, at the Goodwood Main Branch Library beginning in September. Prior to being eligible to check the telescope out, library card holders must attend a brief presentation on how to use and care for the telescope. The September training sessions are as follows:

• Tuesday, September 3rd at 10:00 a.m. in Conference Room #2
• Tuesday, September 10th at 7:00 p.m. in the Auditorium
• Tuesday, September 17th at 7:00 p.m. in Conference Room #2
• Tuesday, September 24th at 10:00 a.m. in Conference Room #2

For more information, contact the Library Information Service at (225) 231 – 3750 or visit the astronomy infoguide at http://ebrpl.libguides.com/stargazing. For more information on BRAS, visit their website at www.brastro.org.

For more information and to register, call (225) 354-7560.
Storytime at the library

Storytime gives children an excellent introduction to books and the library, increases their attention spans, and develops their social skills by involving them in stories, poetry, and songs. The Children’s Services staff hopes Storytime will be an enjoyable experience for each child, leading to a lifelong love of books and reading. You are always welcome to attend Storytime with your child. We offer seven different Storytime formats. Since children develop at different rates, you may talk with one of our library staff members to place your child in a younger or older group.

For more information, call your local library. Organized groups must reserve a date and time other than those listed below.

Fairwood Chapter Book Club

Children ages 7-11 will take turns reading aloud at the Fairwood Branch on Thursday, September 12, at 4:30 p.m. We’ve chosen Eth Clifford’s Help! I’m Prisoner in the Library. After the story, enjoy some delicious refreshments while you make a bookmark by drawing your favorite part of the story! For more information and to register, call (225) 924-9386.
