The sixteenth annual One Book One Community continues in April! The series highlights Gwen Roland’s Atchafalaya Houseboat: My Years in the Louisiana Swamp, as well as other topics such as nature conservation, Louisiana wildlife, birding, and nature photography.

The Library is pleased to host author Gwen Roland for two events in April, as well as a tribute to the music of the Atchafalaya and various other OBOC events at all library locations.

The goal of One Book One Community is to encourage the reading of good books and to inspire meaningful conversation among friends, family, neighbors, and co-workers. This year’s selected title will also draw Louisiana natives closer to our heritage and to an appreciation for the natural beauty right here in our state.

Please join us in reading Atchafalaya Houseboat and participating in the discussions and varied programs relating to Ms. Roland’s experiences of a simpler life surrounded by the wonders of our bayou paradise.

For more information about this year’s OBOC selection and a full schedule of events and programs, visit www.ReadOneBook.org

Lagniappe Dulcimer Society Concert

The Lagniappe Dulcimer Society will perform a musical concert featuring the mountain dulcimer on Saturday, April 23 at 2 p.m. at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch. The concert will highlight the wide variety of music which can be played on the dulcimer including gospel, fiddle, folk and children’s songs. Members of the Lagniappe association will tell about the history of the dulcimer and demonstrate how to play this American folk instrument. The concert provides a taste of the music which will be offered at our “Learn to Play the Dulcimer” series of adult classes in May at the library. Fun for the whole family!

Atchafalaya Houseboat Documentary Screenings

Join the following library locations to watch and discuss the documentary, Atchafalaya Houseboat, based on our One Book One Community selection this year by author Gwen Roland. The critically acclaimed story shared the experiences of Roland and her companion, Calvin Voisin, who left civilization in the turmoil of the early 1970s to return to the simple, quiet lifestyle of their great-grandparents in the vast, unspoiled beauty of the nation’s largest river swamp, Louisiana’s Atchafalaya Basin. The 2007 film, based on the book by Gwen Roland, was produced by Christina Melton, who has been recognized with several of the television documentary world’s top awards, including an Emmy Award, the Alfred I. Dupont-Columbia Award for Excellence in Journalism, the Edward R. Murrow Award, and the International CINE Golden Eagle among others.

Saturday, April 9 at 3 p.m. – Scotlandville Branch
Saturday, April 16 at 4 p.m. – River Center Branch

Nature Around Us

Observing nature causes us to see a whole other world happening right before our eyes. Patrons of all ages can join the Bluebonnet Regional Branch on Saturday, April 9 at 2 p.m. for a presentation by Lori Radunzel-Davis from the Louisiana Master Naturalists of Greater Baton Rouge as they discuss “Nature Around Us”. What is nature? How have attitudes changed toward nature over time? What are some benefits we get from nature? These questions will be answered, along with ideas and resources for nature observation and citizen science opportunities.
FEATURED PROGRAMS

National Library Week: Connect with Your Library!

Show your appreciation and support for libraries by visiting your East Baton Rouge Parish Library during National Library Week, April 3-9! This year’s theme is “Connect with Your Library!” Libraries are places to get connected with technology by using broadband, computers and the digital library. Libraries also offer opportunities to connect with your community through special events, programs, and classes, in addition to books.

National Library Week is a time to highlight the essential role that libraries, librarians and library workers play in transforming lives and strengthening communities. Check out the testimonials from EBRPL patrons included in each section of this month’s Source! In addition to visiting your local branch, you can shout out your love for libraries on social media by following EBRPL on Facebook and Twitter, using the hashtag #NationalLibraryWeek.

Family Fun Day for the 1950 Census

Bring the family for a day of fun. Join us for a vintage car show, music and food as we celebrate the release of the full 1950 census data! The Genealogy department is hosting this outdoor party to celebrate families and family history on Saturday, April 30, 11 a.m.-2 p.m. on the plaza at the Main Library at Goodwood. The 1950 census data contains details on the lives of over 150 million people who were living in the United States. Come and find out what your parents or grandparents were doing, where they lived and much more as you enjoy games and retro fun under the warm April sun. No registration required. All are welcome. For more information, call 231-3751.

I Love My Library Because...

- "It is beautiful, well-organized, resourceful, and my place of peace.”
  - Tanya M.
- "It is a primary source of possibilities for recreation and learning. I have had a public library card since I was 9 years old and am now 81. I love the Goodwood Library!”
- "The building is full of light and life, quality information is at your fingertips, and everything is FREE!"
- "I can read all the books I want without having to buy them! I can find information, learn a language or new skills using the library’s databases! And the staff is wonderful!”
- "I remember the sense of wonder and responsibility I had when I got my first library card. A whole new world of possibilities and knowledge opened up to me. I couldn’t believe I was allowed to take someone else’s book home!”

12th Annual History Festival: At Grandma’s House

The 12th Annual Community History Festival—At Grandma’s House will be held on Saturday, April 2, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at the Pride-Chaneyville Branch. The whole family will enjoy a day of FREE country fun, food, games, crafts, and entertainment. Activities will include rocking on the porch, a pea shelling contest, face painting, hopscotch, sack races, tic tac toe, pinwheel, checkers, and much more. There will be special guests speaking on such topics as genealogy, composting, and family and consumer sciences. Local vendors will be available for the purchase of homemade and handcrafted items. The Louisiana Lagniappe Dulcimers will provide music for the event. The ever-popular, old-fashioned Cake Walk will be held every hour. Come take a step back in time, revisiting the storied past of the Pride-Chaneyville area with everything Grandma used to know and do from ancestry to oral histories, gardening, cooking, household hints, sewing, cleaning for company, milking the cow, words of wisdom and more. It is a hearkening back to the old days of home economics and passing down Grandma’s wisdom to the current day. The Pride-Chaneyville Branch is located at 13600 Pride-Port Hudson Road, in Pride, LA. For more information about this event, call 658-1540.

The Edible Book Festival

The Edible Book Festival is an international celebration of books, food and bad puns, held on or around April Fools’ Day each year. Participants are invited to choose a book and create some type of edible representation of its title or a wordplay on its title. Join us as we gather at the Main Library at Goodwood on Sunday, April 3, 2-4:30 p.m. to see the bookish fare concocted to amuse, amaze, or, yes, even disgust onlookers and fellow participants. Starting at 2:30, vote for your favorites in categories such as Best in Show, Wittiest, Least Appetizing and more! Winners will be announced at 4 p.m. To submit an entry, just bring your punny creation to the library at 2 p.m. to be displayed.

EBR Master Gardeners Series

The East Baton Rouge Master Gardeners Association (EBRMGA) will present talks on “Soil Basics” and “Hydroponics” on Thursday, April 28, 5:30-7:30 p.m. at the Fairwood Branch. The talks are free and open to the public. Louisiana Master Gardener (LMG) Kerry Hawkins will lead the evening with “Soil Basics.” Kerry will discuss native soils and how they come to be, what plants need to optimize growing conditions, and “manufactured” soils available at nursery centers and the various kinds that are available. The “Hydroponics” presentation will be given by LMG Kathy Conerly. She will unravel the mystery of hydroponic gardening by answering questions such as: Can you really grow plants in just water? Is it expensive? Do you need special equipment or a lot of space? Seating and parking are extremely limited. Please register at ebrpl.com/calendar. For more information, call the Fairwood Branch at 924-9380. Masks are required.

❤ I Love My Library Because...

“Having been transferred a few times with my husband’s job, we always join our local library! It’s a touchstone & a familiar place where we always feel like we belong.”

“It is a blessing for us all: kids, single mothers, and the elderly. God bless!”

“As a child we were poor and had no money for books. The library was free and when I read, it gave me a chance to learn new places and things. As an adult with more money, I have visited those places and have done many of those things. This is why the library is my favorite place to be.”

“V.M.

“It’s full of resources for the community. The EBRPL is one of my favorite public places to visit. Keep up the good work!”

“Cynthia Y.

“There are books and programs for all ages!”

“The staff is amazing! Amanda and Lauren were so compassionate and helpful in my time of need. They provided me with the resources I needed and I am so thankful.”

Baton Rouge Blues Festival

The Baton Rouge Blues Festival will take place on April 23 and 24 in Downtown Baton Rouge. Since 1981, the Baton Rouge Blues Foundation has been bringing our community an impressive lineup of outstanding musicians for this annual, highly-anticipated event. The festival’s mission is to encourage promotion, preservation and advancement of the swamp blues music native to Baton Rouge, Louisiana.
City Nature Challenge

Join the Louisiana Master Naturalists of Greater Baton Rouge in “The City Nature Challenge,” a friendly four-day international nature competition to see which locale can show the most wildlife in their area. From April 29 - May 2, go on a walk, visit a park, or explore the wild organisms in your own backyard. Take photos of wildlife with your phone or camera, and post them as observations in the iNaturalist app or the website at www.inaturalist.org. Anything wild counts! Plants, animals, insects, mushrooms, fish, birds, turtles – anything that was not planted by or brought here by a person. It’s a contest! The Baton Rouge contest area includes the 12 parish region. Let’s beat our neighbors in Texas! iNaturalist is also a great tool for identifying wildlife you see, and the observations you share become scientific data available to researchers anywhere in the world.

New this year:

If you are a birder, you can post your bird observations in eBird.org or the eBird app, and they will also be counted toward our regional total with the iNaturalist observations.

For more information, visit www.brnaturechallenge.org.

Introduction to Ancestry LE
Ancestry.com is arguably the biggest genealogy site around and can be overwhelming (and expensive) to use. With Ancestry Library Edition, you can do almost everything that you can on Ancestry.com. Join us at the Main Library at Goodwood on Thursday, April 7 at 7 p.m. to learn tips and techniques for searching effectively and navigating their major historical collections like vital records, census lists, immigration, military, and directories. You can also browse Public Member Trees to quickly and effortlessly find others who have been researching your family tree. Seating is limited to 10 in-person, with 15 virtual slots available. Registration is required. To register for this class, call 231-3751 or find us in the Events Calendar at www.ebrpl.com.

Tracing Your Sicilian Ancestry
Many Louisianans today are descendants of immigrants who arrived in the United States from Sicily. What occurred to make these families want to leave their homeland for a new start in a brand new country? You are invited to the Main Library at Goodwood on Thursday, April 14 at 3 p.m. to discuss events occurring in Sicily at the time, plus how to locate birth, marriage, and death records of your Sicilian ancestors. Seating is limited to 10 in-person, with 15 virtual slots available. Registration is required. To register for this class, call 231-3751 or find us in the Events Calendar at www.ebrpl.com.

All the career and job search help you need is at your fingertips when you visit www.CareerCenterBR.com/YouTube to see FREE video seminars on cover letter and résumé writing, job interview tips, computer skills and more. The collection is updated weekly, with new offerings becoming available regularly. Check out these videos:

The Seven Deadly Sins of the Job Search, Part 7: Not Negotiating Salary

The final Deadly Sin of the Job Search occurs after you’ve received a job offer. You’ll be tempted to accept it immediately – but first, it’s important to negotiate your salary to make sure that you’re fairly compensated. Simply accepting their first offer could potentially cost you millions in lost earnings. In this video, we discuss some good strategies for salary negotiation.

Please call 231-3733 or visit www.careercenterbr.com/events to register.

I Love My Library Because...

“To all in need of career services, I highly recommend you consider using EBRPL’s Career Center. I was lost, after being laid off, not having looked for a job in 18+ years, and my resume was outdated. My visit to the Career Center can be characterized by nothing less than exceptional. Both Lynette and Cynthia helped me tremendously. I felt more positive when I left than when I arrived, not only because my resume had been updated, but also due to the kindness, patience & compassion demonstrated by the helpful & professional staff.”

– Kelly M.

“They are extremely helpful. We made an outstanding resume and I got lots of calls from employers.”

– Tim H.

“Your video ‘How to Apply for a Job at Home Depot’ was amazing! Thank you for the feedback; it truly means a lot. Job applications have always been a huge fear for me.”

Attire for Hire

Women in Media will host Attire for Hire on Saturday, April 2 from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. at the Main Library at Goodwood. WIM will accept clothing donations suitable for women who are entering or returning to the workforce; donations will then be turned over to several non-profits who size them and distribute them. The event will be set up in the Library’s parking lot where donors can drive by and drop off items.

Suits for Success

Donate your gently used suits to Suiting 101’s “Suits for Success!” Please bring your suits to the Main Library at Goodwood’s west parking lot on Saturday, April 9, 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. All suits should be dry cleaned with cleaner’s tags attached and on a hanger. Suits should be in good condition. Please write the size of the suit on the attached cleaner’s tag.

BRAC Launches Jobs Portal

The Baton Rouge Area Chamber (BRAC) announces the launch of brworks.org, a regional jobs portal for the Capital Region featuring technology to match jobseekers with local jobs and regional training opportunities, plus resources for both job seekers and employers. BR Works is built on data provided by national labor market analytics firm Emsi. Visitors to the site can complete a simple skills assessment or upload a resume to be matched to open jobs in the region, ranked by compatibility. Alternatively, job seekers can browse all available regional jobs, sorting by job title or industry sector.

Changing Landscapes Display at the Louisiana’s Old State Capitol

Secretary of State Kyle Ardoin invites the public to attend an exhibit of Changing Landscapes: Photographs Along the Solomon Northup Trail by Avoyelles parish artist Jan Beauboeuf, on display at Louisiana’s Old State Capitol through Thursday, April 14. Beauboeuf’s photographs document the current landscape of sites chronicled in Solomon Northup’s Twelve Years a Slave. The exhibit features stunning landscape photography along the Solomon Northup trail. The trail traces the path of kidnapped free man of color, Solomon Northup, who lived as a slave in Central Louisiana until his rescue and return to Sarasota, New York. Changing Landscapes was made possible in part by a grant from the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities.

Admission is free and the museum is open to the public Tuesday through Friday, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. For more information about the Louisiana’s Old State Capitol, visit www.louisianaoldstatecapitol.org or call 342-0500.

Veterans’ Yoga at the USS KIDD

Strong & Calm Warrior Yoga is back! The 2022 edition begins Saturday, April 2 at 8 a.m. at the USS KIDD Veterans Museum. Admission is free and open to the public. Come for yoga, then stay downtown for the monthly Arts Market and weekly Farmers Market. Join USS KIDD, the Mayor’s Advisory Council on Veterans Affairs, and Yoga with Brandi for our free monthly partnership yoga class designed for Veterans, Active Military, and First Responders, along with their supporters and families. This basic functional yoga class combines easy and accessible postures with relaxation techniques focused on breathing, stretching, strengthening and stability for all bodies, all abilities, all skeptics, and is adaptable to injuries. No previous yoga experience is required, so it’s perfect for beginners.

LASM presents Into America’s Wild

Experience Into America’s Wild at the Louisiana Art & Science Museum’s Irene W. Pennington Planetarium each Saturday at 1 p.m. Step off the beaten path and connect your inner trailblazer in this cross country journey to some of the most beautiful and little known landscapes of North America, from the wilds of Alaska and the lush coastline of Oregon, to the ancient canyons of the Southwest and the rolling hills of the Appalachian Trail. Into America’s Wild is a non-stop ride via kayak, train, bike, hot air balloon and more that explores the transforming allure of wild places and the human connection we all share with the natural world.

Witness to Change

The Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities, through the Coastal Impacts initiative, has chosen LSU Libraries – Special Collections as a host site for a new adult reading and discussion series. “Witness to Change: Community Conversations on Coastal Impacts,” funded by BHP, is a grant program that encourages dialogue and critical thinking about the most important topic that affects Louisianans today. The series is free and open to the public, but registration is required. Complimentary copies of the books are provided as part of the grant program. Scholars will facilitate four discussions using works of both fiction and non-fiction to prompt conversation among participants. Join a virtual discussion via Zoom of Salvage the Bones by Jesmyn Ward on Thursday, April 7, 5:30 - 7 p.m. Visit news.blogs.lib.lsu.edu to register. For more information, contact Amanda Hawk at special@lsu.edu or call 578-6544.

Earth Day at the Mall of Louisiana

Please join us on Saturday, April 23 from 2-5 p.m. at the Mall of Louisiana for Earth Day on The Boulevard! This is a free family event to welcome our community back to the Mall of Louisiana! There will be lots of activities for the kids such as planting wildflowers and bluebonnets, making reusable bags from t-shirts, learning all about recycling, and creating Earth Day artwork to be displayed in the Mall. Kids can also visit the EBRPL Bookmobile and much more! Don’t miss this fun event!
Michelangelo at the River Center

You’re invited to a spectacular, family-friendly experience, located inside the Raising Cane’s River Center! In partnership with Visit Baton Rouge and Louisiana Office of Travel, the Raising Cane’s River Center brings you Michelangelo—A Different View. This exhibit recreates the awe and wonder of Michelangelo’s frescoes in the Sistine Chapel in ways never before possible. Using state of the art technology, Michelangelo’s timeless masterpieces have been reproduced for this historic exhibit. Only here can you explore this moving, exquisite art up close! Michelangelo can be viewed through Sunday, April 17. Exhibition hours are Monday – Saturday: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. and Sunday: 12 p.m.- 5 p.m.

Eugene Martin: The Creative Act

The LSU Museum of Art (LSU MOA) is pleased to present Eugene Martin: The Creative Act, the museum’s first major exhibition of the artist’s work. It features a selection from a 2008 acquisition of 31 works and focuses on Martin’s unique brand of abstraction. The exhibition will be on view at LSU MOA April 7 – October 2. Join LSU MOA for a free Gallery Talk on Friday, April 8 at 6 p.m. to learn more about Eugene Martin’s creative process and works with the Registrar and Curator of Eugene Martin: The Creative Act, Olivia Peltier. This exhibition will also have an interactive component where visitors can create their own Eugene Martin inspired collage works in a small studio space in the gallery. Born in Washington, D.C. in 1938, Eugene Martin dedicated his life to living and working as a full-time artist, creating a body of work clearly defined by periods, from black and white ink drawings to bright and colorful acrylic paintings. Throughout these styles, Martin’s hand is distinct and present. A mixture of organic forms, geometric shapes, and even architectural worlds make up Martin’s universe of figures and creatures.

CAUW Brotherhood/Sisterhood Awards

This year marks the 60th Anniversary of one of our community’s most prestigious honors, the Brotherhood/Sisterhood Awards. The Capital Area United Way African American Leadership Council will host the event on Friday, April 29 at 7:30 a.m. at The Executive Center, 250 South Foster Drive Baton Rouge, LA. Corporate sponsors are the Baton Rouge General and ExxonMobil. Since 1963, The Brotherhood/Sisterhood Awards annually recognize two outstanding individuals in the greater Baton Rouge community who have devoted their professional, philanthropic, and volunteer capacities to humanitarian service to advance the mission of joining hands across racial, socioeconomic, ethnic, and religious lines. In 2018, Pass the Torch award was introduced to the community. This award recognizes one young adult (ages 18-24) who exemplifies the mission of the Brotherhood/Sisterhood Awards, which is to honor those individuals that have and/or are working to work towards the elimination of bias, bigotry and racism across ethnic gender and religious lines in the community.

To purchase tickets to the awards breakfast, visit cauw.org/livingunited. If you have any questions, please contact Amey Shortess Crousillac at ameyc@cauw.org.

Louisiana Youth Writing Contest

LA Writes, in partnership with the Louisiana Center for the Book in the State Library of Louisiana, is sponsoring a writing contest for kindergarten through 12th grade students. Louisiana students may submit poetry, fiction, and nonfiction in both French and English. Electronic entries will be accepted through May 31. Winners will be notified by September 1 and will be honored at a ceremony held during the Louisiana Book Festival in Baton Rouge on October 29. Entry/release forms with further information are available on the Louisiana Writes website at www.lawrites.org. Submissions should be sent to Dr. Ann B. Dobie, contest director, at louisianawritescontest@gmail.com
All programs are free and open to the public. Registration for all programs is encouraged.

To register, call the Library branch directly.

For more information, visit www.ebrpl.com. *Registration required.

KIDS

One Book One Community – Kids’ Style!

Louisiana Bingo

To celebrate One Book One Community, kids are invited to the Main Library at Goodwood on Saturday, April 2 at 2:30 p.m. to play Louisiana-themed Bingo!

Garden Discoveries: It’s for the Birds!

The Baton Rouge Botanic Garden Foundation will host a FREE Garden Discoveries event, “It’s for the Birds,” for children of all ages accompanied by an adult at the Main Library at Goodwood on Saturday, April 9 at 10 a.m. led by Master Gardener Carol Paine. Beginning with a brief welcome and orientation inside the library, Carol will then guide everyone outside to learn about birds that live and thrive in the gardens behind to the library. Carol and other Master Gardeners will be located at ten different sites in the Botanic Gardens, each with information on a different bird that youngsters might find there or in their own backyard. Come see what the birds look like, learn where they like to nest, what they like to eat, and even hear their voices. A special gift will be presented to all children who make the circuit! Registration is required. To register, call 231-3750 or visit the Events Calendar at EBRPL.com.

Press Start! Ready, Set, Read!

Stop by the Children’s Room of any library location to pick up your Press Start! booklet! The month of April is brought to you by the letter D, the numbers 1, 2 & 3 and the color Blue! Each month’s booklet introduces basic concepts with fun activities for ages 2-4 that you can fit into your daily routine.

Story Walk Fun with Author Will Hillenbrand

Children enjoyed special story walks with author/illustrator Will Hillenbrand on March 5 at three of our library locations. Hillenbrand’s books were featured at the locations’ story walk stations, and the author walked along with the children, reading his stories to them. Some young patrons drew pictures with him, too!

You can enjoy a story walk anytime! There are numbered stations near each of the locations below. Each station has 1-2 pages of a children’s book, plus as suggestion for physical activity as you travel to the next station. At the last station, there will be a story-related worksheet for the children to take home. See below for branches and April story titles:

Baker Branch: The Day You Begin by Jacqueline Woodson
Carver Branch: Snail Crossing by Corey R. Tabor
Main Library at Goodwood: Underground by Denise Fleming

I love my library because...

“Ms. Roblyn gives me candy.”

“It is a great place to study. Also it is a very quiet place, that is a great thing. I love the point that it has so many books. Those books might teach us something. Then, you can copy things for school.”

– Tytium R.

“It has a lot of my ‘favoriate’ books and it has a lot of information for projects. It is very quiet and it’s very fun.”

– Giovanni R.

"It’s quiet and it helps me think and don’t make me ‘strest.’"

"I get to color and read books!”

- Olivia D.

"I get to read awesome books with my best friend!"
Drop Everything and Read!

In celebration of Drop Everything and Read Day on April 12, the Greenwell Springs Road Regional Branch will encourage reading Monday, April 11 – Thursday, April 14, all day, by giving away stickers to any child caught reading in the library.

Earth Day Miniature World Wonders

Kids and teens, ages 8-14, are invited to the Main Library at Goodwood on Thursday, April 21, 3:30-4:30 p.m. to explore the tiniest nooks and crannies of Earth’s wild, wild outdoors as we try out our new Foldscope microscopes in celebration of Earth Day! Collect items from nature, make your own slides, and peer into the teeny tiny secrets of things you’ve always wondered about, or relax and try our easy-to-use microscopes and pre-prepared slides.

Earth Day Bingo

Come play a Bingo game with Earth Day-inspired squares following the story The Great Big Green by Peggy Elizabeth Gifford at the Greenwell Springs Road Regional Branch on Thursday, April 21 at 5 p.m.

Book Clubs

High Five Book Club members will meet on Thursday, April 21 at 4:30 p.m. at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch to discuss Sherlock Homes and Dr. Watson, and how they unraveled the clues and solved the crimes in three famous mysteries: The Red-headed League, The Speckled Band, and The Copper Beeches presented in graphic novel form by Murray Shaw. Members will play the board game Clue. Registration is required to attend. To register or for more information, call 763-2260.

Join the Artsy Smartsy Book Club on Saturday, April 23 at 2:30 p.m. at the Pride-Chaneyville Branch. In conjunction with the One Book One Community program, they will be reading and discussing Swamper: Letters from a Louisiana Swamp Rabbit by Amy Griffin Ouchley. It is not necessary to read the book ahead of time. Participants will also make a mixed-media art piece featuring owelets. Registration is required. To register, call 658-1560.

Movie Time

Join the River Center Branch on Sunday, April 24 at 3 p.m. for a screening of Mary Poppins, in which a magical nanny employs music and adventure to help two overlooked children become closer to their father during the turn of the century in London.

STEM – Program Your Ozobot

The River Center Branch invites you to have some Ozobot fun on both Tuesday, April 26, 3-5 p.m. and Thursday, April 28, 10 a.m.-12 p.m. Children will create code and program their Ozobot, then watch them go! Registration is required. To register, call 389-4959. Sorry, no groups.
Storytimes are age- and developmental-specific opportunities for bringing children and books together in a happy, meaningful way by combining stories, rhymes and songs. Story/Crafts provide a literacy-based social setting to get creative! Hear a book read while making or doing something interesting. Check out the schedule below for Story/Crafts taking place this month. *Registration is required for these story crafts. To register, call the Library location directly.

Storytime at the Library

Storytime gives children an excellent introduction to books and the Library, increases their attention spans and develops their social skills by involving them in stories, poetry and songs. The Children’s Services staff hopes Storytime will be an enjoyable experience for each child, leading to a lifelong love of books and reading. You are always welcome to attend Storytime with your child. We offer several different in-person Storytime formats, plus a virtual Storytime on Monday nights through our East Baton Rouge Library Kids page on Facebook. Since children develop at different rates, you may talk with one of our Library staff members to place your child in a younger or older in-person group. For more information, call your local Library. Organized groups must reserve a date and time other than those listed below.
