

“COME TOGETHER @YOUR LIBRARY” With The Big Read: One Book/One Community

River City Jazz@The Library!

Wess “Warmdaddy” Anderson, jazz saxophonist, will present a free jazz performance for all ages at the Carver Branch Library on Sunday, April 1, at 2:30 p.m.

Anderson began playing the saxophone—alto and soprano saxophones—at age 14. Along with Frank Wess, Frank Foster, and Charles Davis, Anderson frequented jam sessions led by saxophonist Sonny Stitt at the Blue Coronet. Before entering Southern University, where he studied with famed clarinetist Alvin Batiste, Anderson met Wynton and Branford Marsalis. In 1988, he became a member of Wynton Marsalis’ Septet, with whom he toured and recorded for seven years. He has been a member of the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra since it began touring in 1992. “Warmdaddy” Anderson is the associate professor of jazz studies at Michigan State University School of Music.

It was during his time with Marsalis’ group that Anderson began to develop his own sound—a mix of traditional New Orleans jazz and a sweeping blues style similar to that of Cannonball Adderley. As a lead alto sax musician, Anderson has recorded and released three solo albums titled “Warmdaddy in the Garden of Swing” (1994), “The Ways of Warmdaddy” (1996), and “Live at the Village Vanguard” (1999).

Library Branch Manager Corner

Heather Harrison has been the Branch Manager of the Central Branch Library in the East Baton Rouge Parish Library system since May 2005. "My goals for the Central Branch are to provide excellent library services for all ages and increase numbers in library card holders, circulation, and patrons attending programs," says Harrison.

Harrison received her Bachelor of Arts degree in History with a Minor in Geography from Louisiana State University in December 1996. With inspiration from her grandmother, Harrison went on to receive her Masters of Library and Information Science from LSU in May 1999. "My grandmother was the librarian at the Pride Library from 1957 to 1977. Her memories encouraged me to become a librarian," says Harrison.

In August 2000, Harrison moved from Pride to New Orleans to pursue her library career as the Assistant Branch Manager for the Milton H. Memorial Library in the New Orleans Public Library system.

"As a librarian, I appreciate the customer service aspect," says Harrison, "I get to help people with their information needs, from the latest fiction title to helping students with school projects."

In her spare time, Harrison enjoys gardening, knitting, and re-finishing furniture.

Tune-Up Your Body Mechanics: Pilates for Performers

Stephanie Jordan

Jazz vocalist and New Orleans native, Stephanie Jordan will demonstrate how to Tune-Up Your Body Mechanics with Pilates for Performers! Learn how to use your "instrument," a.k.a. your body, more effectively by using Pilates and Yoga techniques at the Main Library on Tuesday, April 10, at 6:00 p.m. This master class is geared toward budding, amateur, and professional vocalists, wind-performers, and choir and band directors, but all are welcome. Participants are asked to bring their mats, as this is a hands-on experience.

Jordan is the daughter of saxophonist Edward "Kidd" Jordan. Her style has been compared by some to Diana Krall, Norah Jones, and Shirley Horn, while to others it evokes Nancy Wilson, Dianne Reeves and even Nat "King" Cole.

Jordan's stage presence is dazzling a la Lena Horn. She won the prestigious "Billie Holiday Competition" in Baltimore, Maryland, and she has commissioned a piece for BRAC—Come Rain or Shine, which is currently being used as background music for Hurricane Katrina/Rita disaster assistance.

For more information, call (225) 231-3750.

This program was supported in part by funds from the Louisiana State Arts Council and the Louisiana Division of the Arts and by the Arts Council of Greater Baton Rouge through the Decentralized Arts Funding Program.

Long* and Roosevelt the Reformer: Theodore Roosevelt as Civil Service Commissioner 1889-1895; and The Big Read: One Book/One Community: Spanning 9 Parishes by staff of the East Baton Rouge Parish Library. The 2008 Louisiana Young Readers' Choice Award books for grades three through eight were presented as exciting and energetic "booktalks" by East Baton Rouge Parish Library staff.

The conference ended with the 2nd General Session and Awards Ceremony, conducted by Beth Paskoff, LLA President, and Melissa Elrod, LLA 1st Vice President. Local winners included the James O. Modisette Award for School Libraries: Junior/Senior High to Betty Brackins and Leola Mitchell of Baton Rouge Magnet High School; the Alex Allain Intellectual Freedom Award to Peggy Chalaron of LSU; the LASSAL Support Staff Professional Award to Sylvia D.
