

Louisiana Books and Boogie!

Jeffrey Marx Presents Season of Life

Pulitzer Prize winner and author, Jeffrey Marx, will discuss his New York Times bestseller, Season of Life at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch

Library on Saturday, August 18, at 2:00 p.m.

Marx's lecture will include the life lessons he learned during his time spent with Joe Ehrmann, a former NFL football star and volunteer coach for the Gilman High School football team. "Season of Life is a book about what it means to be a man of substance and impact. It is a moving story that will resonate with athletes, coaches, parents—anyone struggling to make the right choices."

A light reception and book signing will follow the program.

For more information, call (225) 763-2250.

Louisiana Secretary of State, Jay Dardenne will present a riveting and entertaining program, Louisiana Books and Boogie, at the Louisiana State Museum in Baton Rouge on Friday, August 17, at 7:30 p.m.

Dardenne will introduce his top ten favorite Louisiana books. Through music and literature, along with his animated personality and theatrical persona, Dardenne captures the essence, history, and culture of the state of Louisiana in this 45-minute program, revealing how the state is portrayed through literature and music.

Throughout the presentation, Dardenne will include Louisiana music like "Great Balls of Fire" by Jerry Lee Lewis and "You Are My Sunshine" by Jimmy Davis. From talking with a Cajun accent in one book's introduction to quoting and acting out a campaign speech given by Huey P. Long, Dardenne will present a variety of books ranging from "Every Man a King" by Huey P. Long, to "Way Down Yonder in New Orleans" by Pete Fountain.

Call the Louisiana State Museum at (225) 342-5428 for more information.

Victoria Rowell Live @ the Library

Join Cox communications, the East Baton Rouge Parish Library, and eleven-time NAACP image award recipient, acclaimed actress, and author Victoria Rowell at the Scotlandville Branch Library on Saturday, September 1, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., as she presents her work, The Women Who Raised Me: A Memoir.

The Women Who Raised Me is the story of a remarkable woman's rise out of the foster-care system to attain the American Dream and the unlikely series of women who lifted her up in marvelous and distinctive ways. Born as a ward of the state of Maine—the child of an unmarried Yankee blueblood mother and an unknown black father—Victoria Rowell beat the odds. Unlike so many other children who fall through the cracks of our overburdened foster care system, her experience was nothing short of miraculous, thanks to several extraordinary women who stepped forward to love, nurture, guide, teach, and challenge her to become the accomplished actress, philanthropist, and mother that she is today.

A light reception and book signing will accompany the program. For more information, call (225) 354-7580.

Storytime at the Library

Storytime gives children an excellent introduction to books and the library, increases their attention spans, and develops their social skills by involving them in stories, poetry, and songs. The Children's Services staff hopes Storytime will be an enjoyable experience for each child, leading to a lifelong love of books and reading.

You are always welcome to attend Storytime with your child. We offer six different Storytime formats. Since children develop at different rates, you may talk with one of our library staff members to place your child in a younger or older group. Call your local library for more information. Organized groups must reserve a date and time other than those listed below.
