Library Branch Manager Corner

Driving to Pride from Baton Rouge every day might sound like a long commute, but for Jeanne Mixson it is a time to relax and enjoy the scenery. Mixson, a Baton Rouge native, became Branch Manager of the Pride-Chaneyville Branch Library in August of this year. "I often drive without the radio on and just enjoy the beautiful scenery on my ride to and from the library," says Mixson. The Pride-Chaneyville Branch opened in December of 2005 and is nestled in the woods along Pride-Port Hudson Road. "It just feels so peaceful out here. It is a nice respite from the hustle and bustle of the city," says Mixson.

Mixson graduated from the University of Louisiana – Lafayette with a bachelor's degree in Interior Design. She started in the East Baton Rouge Library System as a library technician in Circulation Services in 1986. Her duties included work on the Library's newsletter. "When we first started the newsletter, we would type it up on a typewriter," recalls Mixson. "We eventually began to use a computer but would still have to cut and paste clip art by hand. We've certainly come a long way from that!"

In 2004, Mixson decided to attend Louisiana State University to receive her Master's Degree in Library Science. "A lot of people had been encouraging me for years to get it and I finally decided it was time." After graduating in 2006, she began to work as the Children's Librarian for the Carver Branch.

Her new position as branch manager for the Pride-Chaneyville Branch is exceeding her expectations. "The staff here is great! They are really team oriented and strive to serve the patrons well," says Mixson. One of Mixson's goals for the branch is to bring an "individual service" to the library. "I am working to get to know people in the community here so that I can tailor our resources and programs to meet their needs." The library is involved with several outreach programs in the local schools and community groups. They will also be included in the Christmas in Chaneyville Parade on December 1. "It is such a great community to work in – I really feel blessed to be here."

Mixson resides in Baton Rouge with her husband. They have four children and three grandchildren. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, cooking, painting, and playing the piano. She also volunteers her time helping students with Conversational English Classes through the Chapel on Campus.

To reach Mixson, call (225) 658-1580.

Pride-Chaneyville Branch Anniversary Celebration

The Pride-Chaneyville Branch turns "2" on December 12, and to celebrate, the Northeast High School Show Choir, Southern Harmony, will perform a holiday concert for families on Monday, December 3, at 6:00 p.m. Southern Harmony, an award-winning show choir, is directed by Okema Crawford.

Library staff will be on hand to sign up new library patrons for library cards and show new library users all the great features of the library. Refreshments will be served.

For more information, call (225) 658-1580.

The East Baton Rouge Parish Library wishes to thank the following for their special contributions this year.

Library Awarded The Big Read Grant

The National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) continues its drive toward making The Big Read the largest federal reading program in U.S. history. For the second year in a row, the NEA has awarded the East Baton Rouge Parish Library a $20,000 grant for "The Big Read: One Book/One Community" program. The Big Read is an initiative of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with the Institute of Museum and Library Services and Arts Midwest. It is designed to restore reading to the center of American culture. The Big Read brings together partners across the country to encourage reading for pleasure and enlightenment. The Big Read also addresses the national decline in literary reading as documented in the NEA's 2004 landmark survey Reading at Risk A Survey of Literary Reading in America.

In its inaugural year 2007, the NEA launched the Big Read nationally in partnership with the Institute of Museum and Library Services and in cooperation with Arts Midwest and had more than 70 organizations participate. Participation has since grown exponentially. The Library is one of 127 libraries, municipalities, and arts, culture, higher education, and science organizations to receive a grant to host a Big Read celebration. "In just two years, the Big Read has grown from ten communities to include nearly 200 towns and cities nationwide," said Chairman Dana Gioia. "Although each of these communities celebrates its Big Read program in its own way, one theme we consistently hear back is that the Big Read is not just bringing citizens back to the joy of reading, but also reinvigorating the very idea of community."

The Big Read: One Book/One Community program is sponsored by The Big Read, the East Baton Rouge Parish Library, and the Baton Rouge Area Chamber, who have partnered with libraries, school systems, religious and community organizations, and key leaders of industry and commerce throughout the nine-parish area. Ray Bradbury's Fahrenheit 451 is the chosen title for the Spring 2008 program. Fahrenheit 451 includes themes and characters with which our entire population can relate and as such, is perfect to promote a positive dialogue in our very diverse region. Bradbury's novel was chosen because it deals with a bevy of issues concerning our community—intellectual freedom, censorship, government control, and understanding the role the media plays in shaping our future. These are appropriate topics for discussion in our community which is still struggling with issues related to ethics, personal responsibilities, the government's role in and response to Katrina's devastation, and the slow process towards recovery and rebuilding.

For more information on participating in the program, and for businesses and organizations who wish to partner with the East Baton Rouge Parish Library and the Baton Rouge Area Chamber, contact Mary Stein at (225) 231-3710 or mstein@ebr.lib.la.us
