

8TH ANNUAL Attic Treasures & Collectibles

Do you have something of value in your attic? An heirloom piece of jewelry or a collection of stamps?

Here is your chance to learn if your collectibles, treasures, and antiques are really worth something! The East Baton Rouge Parish Library's eighth annual Attic Treasures & Collectibles will be held on Saturday, October 11, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch.

The event will once again feature local and regional collection specialists who will identify items brought for evaluation. Each person is limited to three items. Although some collection specialists may feel qualified to offer monetary appraisals on these items, the program is only intended to offer identification and evaluation.

"Attic Treasures is a great chance for the public to receive free information and advice on items that they feel may be of value," says Head of Adult Services, Andi Abraham. "We've seen some great surprises – including a lady who came in with what she thought were worthless stones, but turned out to be rare yellow diamonds!"

Library books and magazines on antiques, collecting, restoring, and appraising will be available for check-out

LOUISIANA BOOK FESTIVAL

OCTOBER 4 2008 BATON ROUGE

On Saturday, October 4, 2008, from 10:00 a.m. to 7:30 p.m., booklovers of all ages will get a chance to share the joy of reading at the sixth annual Louisiana Book Festival in downtown Baton Rouge.

During the festival, more than 125 authors will present their latest releases, discuss them with their fans and sign autographs. The book festival is free and open to the public. It all takes place in the heart of Baton Rouge at the State Library of Louisiana, the Louisiana State Capitol, the Louisiana State Museum and nearby locations.

"The Louisiana Book Festival presents a unique opportunity for Louisiana visitors and residents to experience first-hand exceptional authors and the literary heritage of our state," said Lt. Governor Mitch Landrieu, whose office oversees the State Library of Louisiana. "It is now more important than ever to celebrate what is unique about Louisiana. I am proud to champion this world-class celebration of writers and books and want everyone to enjoy what it has to offer."

The festival starts at 10 a.m. with a program in the Senate Chamber honoring William Joyce, recipient of the 2008 Louisiana Writer Award. Throughout the day, readings and discussions continue in the Senate and House Chambers and Committee Hearing Rooms.

While most of the programs in the Capitol are geared towards adult and young adult readers, the Young Readers Pavilion is meant to capture the interest of children of all ages, with performances of storytellers and musicians such as Oneal Isaac, Angela Davis, Phil Melancon, Johnette Downing, and Jeannine Pasini Beekman.

The Louisiana Book Festival is co-sponsored by the Louisiana Center for the Book; the State Library of Louisiana; the Department of Culture, Recreation & Tourism; Office of the Lt. Governor Mitch Landrieu and the Louisiana Library Foundation. It is funded through federal and state grants as well as private sponsors such as the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities and Barnes & Noble Booksellers

For a full schedule, visit www.LouisianaBookFestival.org or call (225) 219-9503...and check out the East Baton Rouge Parish Library's booth!!!

at the event. Some categories of items the collection specialists will evaluate include: dolls, stamps, coins, jewelry, pottery, beads, glassware, books, and paintings.

If you are still looking for more ways to do research on your antiques, the Library offers a wealth of resources! p4A Antiques Reference Database is available for free on the Library's website and can be accessed in the Library or from your home computer. p4A allows you to look up the value on a variety of items. This database is not just for collectors though, it is a collection in itself! It offers an image database with tons of great images of weirdly wonderful things. Hidden in the depths of p4A you'll find James Dean's t-shirt from Rebel Without a Cause, Sitting Bull's revolver, General George A. Custer's folding camp chair, a Tyrannosaurus Rex claw, the Red Baron's goggles, and many more odd, yet historical, items of interest! Be your own treasure hunter and explore p4A Antiques Reference Database!

Desperately Seeking Yearbooks

Help contribute to the preservation of Baton Rouge history! The Baton Rouge Room is currently asking for donations of yearbooks from Baton Rouge schools. All schools are included in this search – elementary, middle, junior high, high school, and college. "While the Baton Rouge Room does already have a large collection of local yearbooks, we are looking to expand the collection as well as fill in gaps," says archivist, Melissa Eastin. Find out if you have a yearbook that might be of value to the Baton Rouge Room by calling (225) 389-4960.

Writing The Memoir

A Workshop with Thomas Larson

Author, Thomas Larson, will conduct a memoir writing workshop at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch on Wednesday, October 15, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Larson will teach the basic elements of memoir writing, including how to discover the emotional truth in a story. ## I'll Be Seeing You...America and World War II

The East Baton Rouge Parish Library continues its six-week series of readings and discussions about World War II as a national and personal experience for Americans and their adversaries. The program is free and open to the public. It will be held on Wednesdays, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Bluebonnet Regional Branch beginning August 27th and concluding on October 8th.

Dr. Stanley E. Hilton, Jane Lucas DeGrummund Professor of History at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, will introduce and lead discussions on America's role in World War II. This program will examine how Americans waged war for human rights using an arsenal of new weapons and combat tactics that still shape the world today. Participants will read and discuss the nature of war as fought on the high seas of the Pacific and the plains of Europe with the perspective of America's principle opponents included. Readings include a few chapters each week from books especially chosen to represent many different views on this topic.

Wednesday, October 1 . . . . . America's Enemies

Wednesday, October 8 . . . . . Homefront USA

This Readings in Literature and Culture (RELIC) program is jointly sponsored by the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities and the Louisiana Library Association. Funding provided by the State of Louisiana and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Storytime at the Library

Storytime gives children an excellent introduction to books and the library, increases their attention spans, and develops their social skills by involving them in stories, poetry, and songs. The Children's Services staff hopes Storytime will be an enjoyable experience for each child, leading to a lifelong love of books and reading.

You are always welcome to attend Storytime with your child. We offer six different Storytime formats. Since children develop at different rates, you may talk with one of our library staff members to place your child in a younger or older group. Call your local library for more information. Organized groups must reserve a date and time other than those listed below.
