

Weather Crossword

You will find a weather crossword attached.

To solve a crossword, you use the clues like definitions to think of a weather word that matches. Then you write the word, one letter in a box, in the puzzle. If the word doesn't fit, it isn't the correct word and you will have to find a different word.

Can you use the clues to solve the crossword?

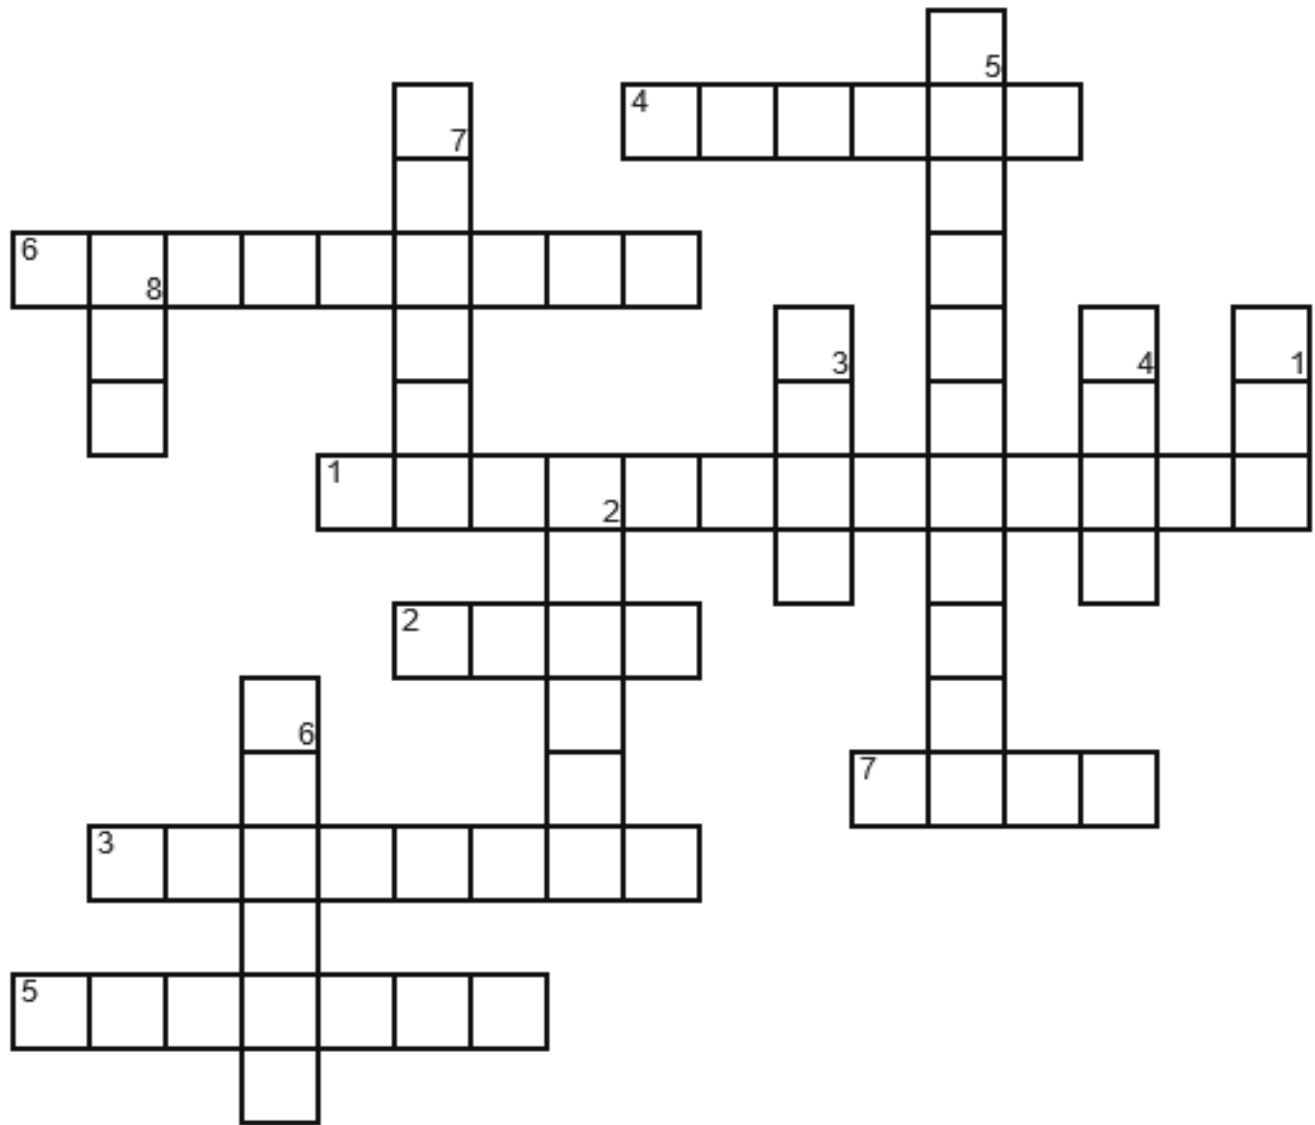

What's another word for rain?

I dunno. Have you checked the thesaurus?

Good idea! Oooooo...Precipitation! That's it!
