

Come out and join Pride-Chaneyville Branch Library in celebrating their 15th Annual Community History Festival—Country Crafts & Hobbies. The whole family will enjoy a day of FREE country fun, food, games, crafts, music and entertainment on Saturday, March 29 from 10 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Activities will also include a pie contest, historic dancing with the Lagniappe Historic Dance and Pastime Society, basket weaving, candle making, pottery spinning, corn husk dolls, soap making, a milk the cow game, a sourdough starter demonstration, tea mixing, music making with the Lagniappe Dulcimers & hand-made ukuleles, stained glass art, wood carving with the Pelican Wood Carvers Guild, wood burning art, decorating bird houses, herb gardening with Master Gardener Claire Fontenot, making wind chimes, macramé, crochet & embroidery with Crafting for a Cause and the Red Stick Smocking Guild and Fine Needle Work, Jewelry making, calligraphy, face painting, a basketball arcade, football arcade, golf arcade, a kiddie fishing pond, baseball toss, foosball, billiards, air hockey, sumo wrestling, a bouncing bull pen, cornhole, and much more!

Various artists and craftsmen will participate, along with local vendors who'll be available for the purchase of homemade and handcrafted items. The Louisiana Lagniappe Dulcimers and the Upbeats will provide music for the event. The ever-popular old-fashioned cake walk will be held every hour!

Come take a step back in time, revisiting the storied past of the Pride-Chaneyville area. We will be harking back to yesteryear, celebrating country craft and hobby memories throughout our area, and passing down generational history and wisdom to the current day.

We are located at 13600 Pride-Port Hudson Rd., Pride, Louisiana, 70770. For more information, call (225) 658-1540.
